The Glory of God's Creation

Psalm 19:2 declares, "The heavens declare the glory of God; the firmament proclaims the works of his hands."

I hope that during these summer months you and your families find some time to get out and enjoy the beauty of God's creation.

From 2006-2016 our family used to go to Tofino, BC on Vancouver Island every summer for a salmon fishing trip. Tofino is one of my favorite places to visit. One of those years while we were taking the ferry from Tsawwassen to Nanaimo, my father turned to me and said, "I have been all over the world and travelled to over 50 countries. Do you realize you live in one of the most beautiful parts of the world?"

We do live in one of the most beautiful parts of the world and there are so many opportunities to break away and enjoy a hike or visit to a park. Getting time away for rest and relaxation are an extremely important part of our Christian journey.

St. Francis of Assisi had a special love for the splendor of God's creation. The Catechism of the Catholic Church has an excerpt from his Canticle to the Sun. I would like to end this reflection with those words and am praying for us all to enjoy these summer months and the beauty that surrounds us.

May you be praised, O Lord, in all your creatures, especially brother sun, by whom you give us light for the day; he is beautiful, radiating great splendor, and offering us a symbol of you, the Most High....

May you be praised, my Lord, for sister water, who is very useful and humble, precious and chaste....

May you be praised, my Lord, for sister earth, our mother, who bears and feeds us, and produces the variety of fruits and dappled flowers and grasses....

Praise and bless my Lord, give thanks and serve him in all humility. (CCC #344)

In Christ,
