Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings in the Lord Jesus Christ! I hope that you and your families are all doing well.

Thank you for your prayers and concern for my father, Gary Northrop, as he continues his fight against cancer. He recently completed his third round of chemotherapy and the doctors told him that they won't know for a couple of more weeks how effective it is in stopping the cancer from spreading further throughout his body.

Because of this situation, I am going to be leaving after the 10:30AM Mass on November 20 to join my family for the week of Thanksgiving. I will be returning in time for the weekend Masses for the First Sunday of Advent.

There will be no weekday Masses during the week of November 20-26.

There will also not be a Thanksgiving Day Mass at St. Thomas Parish this year.

St. Anthony parish in Renton and St. Francis of Assisi parish in Burien both have a Thanksgiving Day Mass at 9AM.

Thanks again for your prayers and support during this difficult time for our family. I pray you will all enjoy a blessed Thanksgiving with your families.

in Christ,

Fr. James Northrop

Pastor

LIVE THE LITURGY
INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus assures us that the world, as we know it, will one day come to an end. When will this be? In one sense, having an answer to that question really does not matter. Faith is faith and either we have it or we do not. Secure in that faith, we know that when one thing ends, another begins. In the meantime, we are asked to persevere and remain strong through all of life's inevitable challenges and obstacles. What we see and experience as we journey to the day when all is one in Christ, may cause our faith to be shaken and tested. Trust and endurance are what are needed as world events unfold. Even though life can be uncertain and terrifying at times, faithful people will be protected. It does not matter what day or hour the end will come. We must remain ready and vigilant anyway.
