SPECIAL EVENTS

Get to Know Saint Mark

Many of our Gospel lessons are from the Gospel of Mark. Here is some information about the young man whose life and work is reflected in the Gospels we read every Sunday.

Mark is called the Evangelist. Mark's mother was a prominent member of the infant Church at Jerusalem; it was to her house that Peter turned on his release from prison. The house was a meeting-place for the Christians, "

When, on the occasion of the famine of A.D. 45-46, Barnabas and Saul had completed their ministrations in Jerusalem, they took Mark with them on their return to Antioch (Acts, xii, 25). Not long after, when they started on St. Paul's first Apostolic journey, they had Mark with them as some sort of assistant. He may have helped even in preaching the Word. When Paul and Barnabas resolved to push on from Perga into central Asia Minor, Mark departed from them at Paphos, and returned to Jerusalem (Acts, xiii, 13). What his reasons were for turning back, we cannot say with certainty. The incident was not forgotten by St. Paul, who refused on account of it to take Mark with him on the second Apostolic journey. This refusal led to the separation of Paul and Barnabas, and the latter, taking Mark with him, sailed to Cyprus (Acts, xv, 37-40). At this point (A.D. 49-50) we lose sight of Mark in Acts, and we meet him no more in the New Testament, till he appears some ten years afterwards as the fellow-worker of St. Paul, and in the company of St. Peter, at Rome.

The Latin and Greek Churches celebrate his feast on April 25.

SOMOS OVEJAS CON PASTOR.

Mucha gente seguía a Jesús porque, al escucharlo, su corazón se llenaba de paz y de esperanza. A pesar del esfuerzo que le implicaba atenderlo, a tal grado de que “ no les dejaban tiempo ni para comer”, ni a el ni a sus discípulos, Jesús se compadeció de ellos, porque “ andaban como ovejas sin Pastor.”

Nosotros tenemos la fortuna de haber recibido el don de la fe, los Sacramentos ( de acuerdo con nuestra edad y estado de vida), y de saber que Cristo esta en medio de nosotros, aunque no lo veamos por el momento.

No dejemos de buscar el tiempo y el sitio adecuados para encontrarnos con Jesús, nuestro único Pastor.
